

.Net Developer

Make a real difference in a dynamic growth company

- Innovative, fast paced .Net environment
- 5+ years experience
- Experience working in e-commerce
- $100,000 per annum + Super

Are you under-challenged or fed-up of being a small cog in a big machine? This is an excellent opportunity for a .Net Developer looking to become the lead developer for a dynamic fast growing company. We're looking for someone who can work with minimal supervision, is a natural born problem solver, and a person who takes pride in their code. Working directly with the CEO, you will need to be able to grasp and distill business requirements, define the project, build the code, test, and launch the project. You will need to be able to juggle multiple deadlines, and always take ownership of a project from cradle to grave.

This position has only become vacant because our existing developer is going overseas, returning home after 4 rewarding years! This position starts in August to ensure an extended hand-over period. A love of great food will be useful but it's not essential!

Requirements

- ASP.NET web development with experience in Java Script, AJAX supported applications and web services
- VB.NET desktop application development using along with windows service applications
- MS SQL Server database design and administration including T-SQL programming
- An excellent understanding of relational databases design concepts
- Experience with LINQ components a plus
- Lateral thinker passionate about building usable, standards-based interfaces
- Excellent communication skills, written and verbal, not just Tech-speak, proven ability to work with users and understand requirements

The Company

Brasserie Bread is Australia's leading artisan bakery, delivering its award winning products 365 days a year to over 300 locations across Sydney and the ACT. Logistics, QA, information systems and CRM are critical to our business. Over the past 5 years the company has invested heavily in the development of its intranet, 'The Bread Board'. Built from the ground-up, the Bread Board is now responsible for managing all critical functions of the business. The Bread Board continues to develop at a rapid pace, and has already proved to be a world class, leading edge IT solution for the wholesale artisan baking industry. The company recently launched an online shopping service dynamically linked to the Bread Board and the management of our e-commerce resources will become more important.

If you are interested in this position please initially contact Brasserie Bread through gil@brasseriebread.com.au